Agenda Item 8: GAC Working Group on Human Rights and International Law (HRILWG)

Issues

Scheduled meeting of the GAC Working Group on Human Rights and International Law.

GAC Action Required

This is a Working Group session. Any action for the GAC will depend on issues that the Working Group wishes to bring to the GAC plenary.

At the time of preparing this brief the draft agenda for the Working Group meeting was:

1. HRILWG Work Plan: This was adopted in 2016 and can be found here. The Work Plan may need revision in light of developments in related areas of community activity, for example the Final Report of CCWG-Accountability WS2, the Initial report of the New gTLD Subsequent Procedures PDP and GDPR issues.

2. CCWG-Accountability Work Stream 2
   (a)   CCWG "recommends the adoption of the Framework of Interpretation (FoI) it developed for the ICANN Bylaws dealing with Human Rights, which can be found in Annex 3 [of the Final Report]". The final report is available here: https://community.icann.org/display/WEIA/Final+Report
   (b)   Next steps.

3. ICANN Org Human Rights Impact Assessment
   (a)   Announced in May 2018: Details here.
   (b)   Update from relevant area of ICANN Org (this is being followed up by ICANN GAC support staff).

Current Position

The Working Group Co-Chairs are Switzerland (Jorge Cancio) and Suada Hadzovic (Bosnia-Herzegovina).
