Current Status

- CCWG has reviewed all public comments on the Initial Report and incorporated changes in response to these comments, where appropriate.
- CCWG is now finalizing its proposed Final Report.
 - Key remaining issue: recommendation of mechanism(s) for fund allocation.
- Additional input received from ICANN Board & ICANN Org based on clarifying questions from the CCWG.
 - Currently under review by CCWG.
- Post ICANN66:
 - CCWG member survey on possible mechanisms.
Aim: indicative consensus designations for proposed Final Report.
 - Additional public comment on areas where there have been substantial changes since the Initial Report that went out for public comment.

Next Steps

Opportunities for GAC Input

- Poll
GAC representatives on the CCWG to participate in poll to assist with finalizing proposed Final Report.
- Public comments
Even though all ICANN SO/AC are chartering organizations and have appointed members to the CCWG, input will be welcome as part of the public comment forum.
- Consideration & Adoption of Final Report by Chartering Organisations
Following public comment and revision of the report (if appropriate), the Final Report will be sent all chartering organizations for their consideration and adoption.

GAC Participants:

The GAC is a Chartering Organization of this CCWG:

- Nominated members of the GAC participating in the effort include Argentina, India and Iran.
- Participants include Cook Islands.
- Observers include Egypt, CTU and the United States.

GAC Input:

- No substantial discussions held by the GAC on new gTLD Auction Proceeds
- No official GAC input was made via the Public Comment Proceeding

GAC Action/Discussion:

- Does the GAC wish to explore potential input on the issue?
 1. Consideration of possible further engagement within the CCWG for the GAC to consider best mechanism/opportunities for input on the final recommendations.
 2. Identify GAC position(s) to provide GAC Input within the CCWG Auction Proceeds prior to the Final Report being published via GAC members on the CCWG; and
 3. As a Chartering Organization of the CCWG, the GAC may wish to consider the Final Report once it is published and provide GAC Input.
