Post ICANN83 GAC Capacity Development Session Survey Results (June 2025)
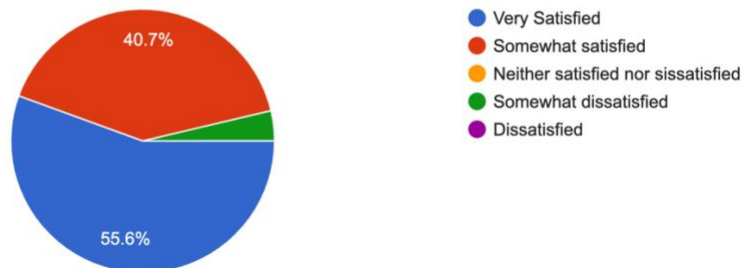

1. Overall, how satisfied were you with the ICANN83 GAC Capacity Development Session on the New gTLD Program Next Round - Applicant Guidebook (Monday 9 June, 10:45-12:25)
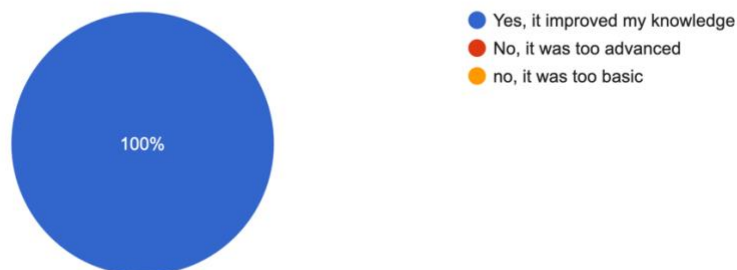

27 responses

- Very Satisfied
- Somewhat Satisfied
- Neither Satisfied Nor Dissatisfied
- Somewhat Dissatisfied
- Dissatisfied
- I did not attend

33.3%

63%

2. Overall, how satisfied were you with the format and content presented?

27 responses

- Very Satisfied
- Somewhat satisfied
- Neither satisfied nor sissatisfied
- Somewhat dissatisfied
- Dissatisfied

40.7%

55.6%

3. Did the session presentations improve your knowledge and understanding of the topics?

27 responses

- Yes, it improved my knowledge
- No, it was too advanced
- no, it was too basic 100%

4. What topic(s) related to next round of new gTLDs would you like the GAC Capacity Development sessions to address during a future meeting (ICANN84/ ICANN85)?
The topic on how ICANN address applications of sensitive names, which is sensitive for a particular country only.
ASP
GAC / states role in the new gTLD processes
1. The application process and timeline, including lessons learned from the 2012 round; 2. Support mechanisms for underserved or developing regions; 3. Public interest commitments and safeguards; 4. Role of governments and opportunities for meaningful engagement during the next round.
Additional fees applied to certain applicants
gTLD business case
I have no additional topic(s) to propose.
Measures to take for the GAC - including how to draft GAC Early warnings/advice
Maybe to try to explain how it works for beginner participants specific issues concerning geoTLD and GAC evaluation tools of applications
DNS Security
how will businesses make back the huge amount invested in buying a domain?
GAC role
Safeguarding national identifiers such as city or regional names. How will this be done under the next round?
RSP
Cost related to the Application
Not yet
The new gTLDs value proposition for applicants
What GAC reps will have to do in their own countries/territories in order to manage the next round and more details about how the role of the GAC in the process will be managed.
Public Interest Commitments (PICs) and Registry Voluntary Commitments (RVCs) Geographic Names and Names with National/Cultural Significance Role of GAC Early Warnings and GAC Advice Community Applications and Evaluation
Early warning and GAC Advice, experience in the previous round - 2012
Categorization, Global Reach, Options for Country and distinctions from ccTLD.
Application Procedure & Overall requirement (to guide potential applicant)
updates and early warnings and objections procedures
ICANN 84: evaluating, organising and as a member how to file GAC early warnings en other ways to for GAC members to weigh into initial evaluation of strings including external panels.
a topic about whether there should be a minimum security framework for new gTLDs may be discussed
na

5. How long have you been a GAC Representative/Delegate/Participant?

27 responses

- ● 0-1 year
- ● 1-2 years
- ● 2-5 years
- ● 5-10 years
- ● +10 years

29.6%
14.8%
14.8%
37%